

All change!

Read the following story. Look at the words and phrases that are underlined, then look at those in the Word Box. Each of these words or phrases could be used instead of one that's underlined. Write the new words underneath the old words.

It was supermarket night. Danny wanted to stay in and watch the big film. Mum said he'd have to come, too. She needed his help to pack the shopping into the car.

Danny sulked for a bit but he soon got over it. First, he piled fruit into the trolley. Then he put in a mountain of pizzas and loads of ice-cream. Mum didn't seem to mind. She was just pleased he was helping. 'Thanks, Danny,' she said. 'I'm sorry you missed your film.'

Danny just grinned – he'd videoed it anyway!

Word Box

told him care lots laughed programme
as well glad shopping assistance cheered up load home pulled a face

Helpline

Watch out! The words in the Word Box are not in the right order!

Add-on

Write the story out again on another sheet of paper with its new words. Check that it makes sense.