Stories are an ideal way to engage children and get them excited about learning French. A good French story will:

- ✓ Provide an enjoyable, stress-free way to learn the rhythm of the language, intonation and pronunciation
- ✓ Introduce sentence structures in a natural way, so children learn to phrase things as a native speaker would
- ✓ Make it easy to present written and spoken language together so children can see the links between them
- ✓ Enable key vocabulary to be learned in context
- ✓ Empower children to create their own sentences
- ✓ Combine naturally with drama and role-play

With Learn French with Luc et Sophie you not only get 28 specially written, humorous, graduated stories. You will also get all this:

- Audio-enhanced electronic copies of the stories for individual use or display on IWB
- An original song in each unit to reinforce vocabulary
- Audio files of stories, acted out by native French speakers, along with vocabulary, songs and listening exercises to aid correct pronunciation
- Activities for use on IWBs
- Easy to use teacher's book with lesson plans based on stories and ideas for developing all four language learning skills – reading, writing, speaking and listening
- Reproducible activity sheets, scripts for stories and assessment sheets
- Translations, vocabulary lists, grammar boxes – all to support the non-specialist.

Grammar

Animals

In this unit we meet the plural forms of some animals. As we saw in Unit 5, in French the plural will be different from the singular, but in English, by adding s (or some other exceptions) the plural will be the same as the singular. Please note that, when a noun is accompanied by a possessive adjective, both the noun and the adjective become plural (don't forget to pluralise the possessive adjective too). For the rules see the grammar box in Unit 5. In a concept map I put the correct grammatical form, you do not actively teach it for the moment.

There is also a plural form of the word 'French' – as for both masculine and feminine nouns, just use les français (not les française) or des français.

Units in English, where nouns can differ, appear on children's (eg 1) maps as follows. In French the noun must (usually) be accompanied by:

- the definite article (ie, le, la, les)
- the indefinite article (un, une, des)
- a number or, or
- a possessive pronoun (eg mon, ma, mes).

There is no need to explain this fact formally to your pupils at this stage. They will learn the principles naturally through reading, listening and using phrases such as zéro, six chats and plusieurs.

Self-assessment sheet

At the end of this unit I can...

What's in the Teaching Guide?

Why information books?

Teachers often use fiction to improve pupils' reading skills but information texts are equally valuable. Information (or non-fiction) books appeal to:

- those who are not too keen on reading fiction
- those who want to boost their general knowledge.

Different ways to use the books

Pupils can read silently in class or you could let them listen as they read. For example, you read the text aloud while pupils follow the images and words on the board. Or you might let pupils listen to the audio as they follow the words on the board or in the book.

Teachers notes for getting the most from the resource

What's on the CD-Rom?

Audio files of each text allow pupils to hear French pronunciation by a native speaker and to make correct sound-spelling links.

PDF versions of stories supplied on CD-Rom to enable them to be displayed on IWB for whole class/group guided reading lessons

- ✓ Introduce sentence structures in a natural way, so children learn to phrase things as a native speaker would
- ✓ Make it easy to present written and spoken language together so children can see the links between them
- ✓ Enable key vocabulary to be learned in context
- ✓ Empower children to create their own sentences
- ✓ Combine naturally with drama and role-play

With Learn Spanish with Luis y Sofia you not only get 28 specially written, humorous, graduated stories. You will also get all this:

- Audio-enhanced electronic copies of the stories for individual use or display on IWB
